Top A/V Integrator Enters New Mexico Market

CCS Hosts Successful Open House & Ribbon Cutting for Community

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. – (September 27, 2010) – CCS, the largest integrator of audio and visual equipment in the Southwest, recently entered the New Mexico market and celebrated the opening of its new Albuquerque office with an open house and ribbon cutting event on September 22.

CCS has quickly grown its business in the New Mexico area, already serving a variety of customers such as the University of New Mexico, Route 66 Casino, Kirtland Air Force Base and Rio Rancho Public Schools. The purpose of the open house was to educate additional people in the business and education community about the ever-changing realm of audio visual technology and demonstrate how it can enhance their organizations. More than 65 people attended and had the chance to win a variety of high tech gadgets such as a SMART Board™ Interactive Whiteboard and SMART Response Clickers, SANYO HD Camcorders a Mitsubishi Home Theater Projector and more.

“The New Mexico market has been a natural progression for us,” said CEO of CCS, John Godbout. “It’s been a wonderful experience working with the business and education community here and we’re looking forward to an exciting future.”

CCS serves customers in the corporate, government and educational sectors. The company sells, installs and services equipment as well as trains clients to use A/V technology.

CCS’ new Albuquerque office is located at 6501 Eagle Rock NE. To contact CCS in New Mexico, please call Branch Manager Brandon Hall at (505) 331-2981 or bhall@ccsprojects.com.
