Top A/V Integrator to Host Open House: September 22
CCS will provide tech giveaways, demonstrations and networking opportunities

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. – (September 13, 2010) – CCS, the largest integrator of audio and visual equipment in the Southwest, today announced it will hold an Open House and Cocktail Reception from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Wednesday, September 22 at its Albuquerque office located at 6501 Eagle Rock Avenue NE.

The purpose of the CCS Open House is to introduce the business, government and education community to the state's newest A/V integrator. Professionals can learn about the latest in audio visual technology, learn how it can enhance their organization and network with manufacturers and the business community. Attendees of the Open House will have a chance to win a variety of high tech gadgets such as a SMART Board™ Interactive Whiteboard, Student Response Clickers, HD Camcorders, Wireless Annotation Slates and more.

"The importance of audio visual technology for businesses and school districts continues to grow," said CEO of CCS, John Godbout. "We're looking forward to networking with business, government and education professionals to demonstrate how the latest interactive collaboration tools can save time, increase productivity and encourage creativity."

CCS serves customers in the corporate, government and educational sectors. The company sells, installs and services equipment as well as trains clients to use A/V technology. CCS offers multiple product lines to enhance presentation effectiveness and customer experiences including interactive SMART Boards™, LCD & plasma displays, projectors and high definition videoconferencing systems. Founded in 1991, CCS was started by a husband and wife team and has grown into one of the largest A/V integrators in the U.S. with more than 450 employees and sales offices in 13 states.

To RSVP for the CCS Open House event, please contact Julie Solomon at jsolomon@ccsprojects.com or phone the Albuquerque office at 505-999-1399.
