CCS Presentation Systems Ranked as the No. 7 Top Audio Visual Integrator in US

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. – (January 5, 2010) – CCS Presentation Systems, the largest integrator of audio and visual equipment in the Southwest, today announced its recognition by Systems Contractor News magazine as the nation's number 7 top audio visual integrator. CCS was listed in the publication's "Annual Top 50 System Integrators" ranking, which is based on total revenue for the past year, number of installations and projected revenue for the coming year for commercial projects. Last year CCS was ranked number 9 in the same category.

John Godbout, founder and CEO of CCS Presentation Systems, stated, "We are pleased with our continued growth and success during this past year. It's an honor to receive this recognition and support from Systems Contractor News as we expand and push ourselves to think outside the box."

CCS serves customers in the corporate, government and educational sectors. The company sells, installs and services equipment as well as trains clients to use A/V technology. CCS offers multiple product lines to enhance presentation effectiveness and customer experiences including interactive SMART™ Boards, LCD & plasma displays, projectors and control systems. Founded in 1991, CCS was started by a husband and wife team and has grown into one of the largest A/V integrators in the U.S. with more than 300 employees and sales offices in 13 states.
