CCS PRESENTATION SYSTEMS CONTINUES TO GROW

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (October 29, 2009) – CCS Presentation Systems announced today the appointment of Janine Gearhart to manager of educational technology and training. Ms. Gearhart brings more than 30 years of industry experience to CCS.

In her new role as manager of educational technology and training, Ms. Gearhart will handle training for K-12 education, higher education and corporations for CCS. Additionally, she will be involved in developing new presentations and workshops. Prior to her new position at CCS, Ms. Gearhart was the director of instructional technology and training in the Mesa Unified School System for 17 years.

“Janine is an outstanding complement to our strong education division,” said John Godbout, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of CCS Presentation Systems. “We’re confident that her experience and talent will be a tremendous asset to all of us.”

Ms. Gearhart has a thorough background in education and technology. Over the past three decades, she has worked at several elementary, junior high and high schools in the Valley, as well as served as an adjunct faculty member at various local universities and community colleges. Ms. Gearhart holds her Master of Education degree from Arizona State University.
