CCS New England Continues to Grow

NASHUA, N.H. – (Dec. 19, 2011) – CCS New England, an audio visual systems integrator today announced the addition of Ross LeBlanc as sales representative and account manager.

LeBlanc brings 15 years of industry experience to the team at CCS New England's Nashua headquarters. As a sales representative and account manager, he will be responsible for corporate accounts in New England and education accounts in Maine. Prior to joining CCS New England, LeBlanc worked at PC Connection where he was instrumental in generating new business opportunities. Additionally, he has worked at eCoast Sales Solutions and Western Sales and Marketing.

"Ross has a valuable skill set and we are thrilled to have him at CCS," said Chris Gamst, vice president of CCS New England. "With his experience and expertise, I know our clients will continue to be well served."

LeBlanc has several manufacturer trainings and certifications including VMware, Apple, HP and Cisco. He holds his bachelor of science degree from the University of New Hampshire.

As an audio visual systems integrator, CCS New England designs audio visual solutions for its customers within the areas of corporate, government and education. CCS provides everything from design integration and installation to training clients to use audio visual technology and equipment. CCS offers multiple product lines to enhance presentation effectiveness and customer experiences including SMART Board™ interactive whiteboards, Panasonic displays, Crestron and AMX room control systems, Epson projectors and Cisco video conference systems.
